Atlantis record seven new club records at Harlow

Dunmow Atlantis were on top form once again for round three of the Essex League, held at Harlow last weekend.

Despite stiff opposition from the other clubs, the talented youngsters put on their usual outstanding display, coming away with 21 personal best times in addition to seven new club records.

SWIMMING

Overall, the Dunmow swimmers grabbed 34 top three places, including 12 top spots.

The phenomenal performance ensured DASC took second place on the night, just behind title holders Romford, and a clear 11 points ahead of third placed Harlow.

The squad consisted of: Amy Rose Ansell, Daisy Herrington, Lucy Le Huquet, Rebecca Johnson, Damon Elliot, Patrick Winnington, Toby Rayner, Aidan Clarkson, Abbie Hart, Louis Spong, Chloe Moloney, Jack Richardson, Grace Mellor, Callum Whelan, Meghan Maybanks, Amy Edwards, Matt McLaughlin, Jamie

McLaughlin, Kyle Panton, Rebecca Dack, Sophie Taylor, Emma Sarginson, Jamie Spong, Sammy Dack, Rebecca Watt, Josh Smith, Katie Musgrove and John Boyle.

The deciding round takes place in June, with Dunmow currently sitting comfortably in second place overall.
