

Atlantis make a splash in derby clash

SWIMMING

Dunmow Atlantis Swimming Club claimed local bragging rights after winning the Centenary Trophy against Saffron Seals.

The Dunmow swimmers travelled the short distance to Saffron Walden on Saturday, to compete against their local rivals, as well as guest club Royston Swimming Club, in a hotly-contested fixture.

The biennial event first started in 2011 as part of the Seals' centenary celebrations, and it sees the two teams compete for the Centenary Trophy.

Atlantis took the spoils, running out comfortable winners, with Royston finishing third.

■ Dunmow Atlantis swimmers with the Centenary Trophy.