Meghan Maybanks and Chloe Moloney have been flying the flag for Dunmow Atlantis Swimming Club across the UK in recent weeks.

The 15-year-old Moloney competed in the England Schools' Inter-Divisional Championships at the Liverpool Aquatics Centre, representing the East region, and was undaunted by stiff competition.

Moloney was selected for the 4x100m freestyle and medley relays and also improved her personal bests in the 100m and 400m freestyle events.

Meanwhile, clubmate Maybanks was part of the ASA East region team at the Edinburgh International Swim Meet in Scotland.

The 16-year-old was third in the 50m freestyle final, fourth in the backstroke and also took part in the butterfly.

Maybanks produced a bold swim in the 100m freestyle as well, to clock a new best of 59.84 seconds.
