Dunmow Atlantis swimmer Zara Clarkson represented the club at the Inter County competition at the weekend.

Competition was fierce throughout the day, as Essex took on Warwickshire, Lincolnshire, Norfolk, Bedfordshire, Leicestershire, Herfordshire and Suffolk.

And it was the second year in succession that 11-year-old Clarkson had been chosen for the squad, with Clarkson proving worthy of selection as she produced a superb butterfly leg in the 4x50m medley relay.

Dunmow Atlantis assistant coach Jamie McLaughlin was poolside as part of the Essex support team and was delighted to see the county squad edge past Warwickshire to claim victory.
