

The nail-biting final round of the National Junior League (M11 Corridor) saw Dunmow Atlantis Swimming Club come out fighting.

Included in the squad were 18 new swimmers representing the the club at their first ever team gala.

And the talented youngsters put on a fine display, not only smashing PBs but dominating the final squadron relay, to finish sixth of 15 overall.

The swimmers competing were: Hettie le Huquet, Zoe Lloyd-Rossi, Emily James, Jodie Thompson, Zac Lund, Zara Clarkson, Harry Rose, Neve Winnington, Harrison Cox, Evan McQuade, Seb Vinnall, Eliza Westcott, Ella Nutt, Georgia Richardson, Jess Jagathesan, Arriane van de Ende, Jack Rayner, Ollie Smith, Henry Bishop, Lucy le Huquet, Hannah Lock, Patrick Winnington, Samuel Hayden, Josh Toms, Ellis McQuade, Millie Westcott, Daisy Herrington, Becky Johnson, Amelia Barton, Toby Rayner, Aidan Clarkson and Ben James.

The Dunmow Atlantis squad that finished sixth in the National Junior League (M11 corridor).