

Atlantis finish Division One with more than 30 top three places

SWIMMING

Dunmow Atlantis (DASC) recently competed in the final Division One round of the Essex League, punching way above their weight against hot favourites Basildon plus title holders Romford.

Dunmow looked equally strong across all age groups, setting the pool alight with some phenomenal swims and cheered on by the infectious enthusiasm of the loud DASC supporters.

The tension was palpable, with Dunmow having much to prove against the bigger clubs; but undaunted, the talented group of youngsters took a total of 34 top three places, smashing seven club records on the way.

Their tenacity paid off, with the squad taking third place on the night and second overall behind Romford – their best ever result in the League.

The Dunmow squad consisted of: Amy Rose Ansell, Lucy le Huquet, Daisy Herrington, Rebecca Johnson, Patrick Winnington, Ben James, Oliver Smith, Aidan Clarkson, Abbie Hart, Jamie McLaughlin, Rose Wilkinson, Jack Richardson, Grace Mellor, Callum Whelan, Meghan Maybanks, Chloe Moloney, Louis Spong, Matt McLaughlin, Kyle Panton, Sophie Taylor, Maddie Lees, Rebecca Dack, Damon Elliot, Sam Dack, Jamie Spong, Rebecca Watt, Josh Smith, Emma Sarginson, John Boyle and Katie Musgrove.
